Article 10 General Assembly

1. Notice of Meeting

- (a) At least 28 days notice in writing shall be given, specifying the date, time and place of an Annual General Meeting (AGM).
- (b) The notice shall specify that Initial Resolutions to be put before the meeting shall be notified to the Secretary at least 21 days before the date of the meeting.
- (c) A second notice shall be sent to member clubs at least 14 days before the meeting, stating the Initial Resolutions. This second notice will also specify that payment of the Annual Membership Fees are to be made, in full, at least 7 days prior to the AGM in order for that member to be entitled to be counted for voting purposes.

10.2 General Assembly (hereinafter GA) is comprised of all registered paid up clubs ,who have been full members for 24 months or more, within the federation and is the highest authority within the federation.

10.3 The powers of the GA entail – among other things – :

- a. Decision of membership;
- b. Election the board;
- c. Approving the budget;
- d. Exonerating the board after reviewing and approving the financial statements of the federation;
- e. Proposals adding to the agenda either by one of its members or the board;
- f. All other matters provided by these statutes or the federations rules and regulations;
- g. Referring matters under its jurisdiction to the president or board.

10.4 The president of the federation shall be the chairman of the GA. The chairman may conclude GA discussion(s) if deemed necessary for smooth progress of the meeting. If the president is unable to attend he or she shall delegate the responsibility to a vice-president. An ad-hoc chairman may be appointed by the president to preside over election of officials.

10.5 Clubs eligible to vote may delegate up to two (2) representatives to attend the GA. Only one of the representatives shall be allowed to speak and to cast a vote (the “Voting Representative”).

10.6 Ordinary meetings of the GA shall be held every year.

10.7 Extra-ordinary meetings may be convened whenever deemed necessary by the president or within three (3) months following a written request of one-third (1/3) of the board members or clubs with clear reasons for the summons. The president shall determine the agenda of the extra-ordinary GM.

10.8 Unless otherwise provided herein, the voting representatives of those clubs that have satisfied the necessary eligibility requirements are entitled to vote.

10.9 Voting at the GA shall be conducted by open ballot in general. However, if one or more representatives request for a secret ballot, the GA shall vote on this matter, and a simple majority shall decide. Secret ballot is also used for elections and when otherwise required by these statutes.

10.10 For voting at the GA, the following shall apply:

- a. A quorum required for the GA shall consist of no less than one-third (1/3) of the clubs eligible to vote;
- b. A simple majority of the clubs present and voting is required for passage of resolutions and other decisions. Abstentions and blank or spoiled votes are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority;
- c. The chairman has the deciding vote in case of a tie.

10.11 Any decision of the GA comes into effect immediately unless otherwise decided by the GA.

Matters that are not included in the written agenda of the meeting shall not be deliberated without the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of eligible voters.

10.12 In the case of urgency, a resolution may be submitted to a vote by correspondence, including telefax or electronic mail, by the president to the GA. Voting eligibility requirements remain the same. For e-voting quorum purposes, unreturned ballots are considered abstentions; or, in the case of registered mail, certified receipt of mail by at least one-third (1/3) of the clubs eligible to vote. A simple majority decides. Results are to be corresponded to the clubs.

10.13 Minutes of all meetings and other proceedings of the GM are established under the authority of the secretary-general. The minutes shall be distributed to each club no later than two (2) months after the GA.

Article 11 Board

one (1) vice-president, one (1) secretary-general, one (1) high performance director, one (1) treasurer and two (2) board members are elected by ballot by the GA for a term of four (4) years. A simple majority is necessary to be elected.

11.3 Board members shall attend the meetings of the board and GA and observe their responsibilities as prescribed herein. Board members owe a fiduciary duty to the federation. The board shall decide upon the following:

- a. Planning and management of federations organization and operations;
- b. Financial budget and financial reports;
- c. Formulation, amendments and repeals of the statutes, bylaws and codes;
- d. Jurisdiction over internal championships and selection of host cities of the championships;
- e. Agenda of the GA;
- f. Matters referred to the board by the GA or the president;
- g. Other matters under its jurisdiction or responsibility as prescribed in these statutes.

11.4 The board may refer matters under its jurisdiction or responsibility to the president and may appoint ad hoc committees, if necessary.

11.5 Ordinary board meetings shall be called by the president or by at least three (3) board members.

11.6 For voting at board meetings the following shall apply:

- a. A majority of all board members shall constitute a quorum for a meeting;
- b. A simple majority of members present and voting is required for passage of resolutions and other decisions;
- c. The chairman has the deciding vote in case of a tie.

11.7 For matters that require urgent resolution of the board, the president may call for a resolution via voting by e-voting.

Article 12 President

12.1 The GA elects a president from among its members for a term of four (4) years. A simple majority is required for election of the president. If the newly elected president holds any other position within the federation, he must resign the other position within one (1) month after being elected as president.

12.2 The duties of the president include the following:

- a. To lead and represent the federation;
- b. To concurrently lead the GA and the board as its chairman, and preside over the meetings and other activities;
- c. To designate official duties to vice-presidents on an ad-hoc basis for the betterment of the development of the sport of taekwondo and the federations operations;
- d. To appoint the chairmen and members of committees.

12.3 In case disputes occur over matters not specified in these statutes, or matters that require urgent solution during the period between the two board meetings, the president may take emergency measures subject to later submission to and approval at the next board meeting.

12.4 The president is authorized to appoint one (1) board member. The president may appoint advisors or special assistants, as the case may be, to seek advice on matters of importance.

12.5 If the president resigns or is incapacitated and thus unable to fulfil the duties of his office, the most senior vice-president shall serve as acting president. The acting president shall not have the power of appointment and must call for an interim presidential election to be held in accordance with article 11 during the next scheduled GM. The winner of this interim election shall serve out the remainder of the term of his/her predecessor. The board shall decide unanimously on the matter of incapacity of the president.

Article 13 Vice-president

13.1 The duties of the vice-president include the following:

- a. To assist the president and to fulfil missions delegated by the president;
- b. To concurrently be included in the board as vice chairmen;
- c. To preside over the ad-hoc duties designated by the president and submit a report thereafter.

Article 14 Secretary-general and treasurer

14.1 The Secretary-general shall:

- a. Plan, perform and manage the secretarial affairs regarding federations organization and operations and other general affairs related to the secretariat;
- b. Submit a report to the board and GM on the activities of the secretariat;
- c. Together with or with the approval of the president, as the case may be, negotiate and sign all contracts between the federation and other organizations or companies;
- d. Represent the federation at negotiations concluded on its behalf.

14.2 The treasurer shall prepare the annual budget and balance sheet to be presented to the board and GA.

Article 15 Federation requirement

15.1 The federation shall be neither affiliated to or have any section of any other international
